Notice and Disclosure Statement

The information is for data tracking for educational purposes and program development and no personal identifiable information will be made public. Statements by student will only be published with permission and will be acknowledged similar to the following example:

Steven B. from OH – “I believe that the each of us have a responsibility to our community and to build a better future. I want to be the Change that allows that happen. I am not a Stranger. I am a Changer.”

If the student wants to include a photo of themselves to be published with their statement, parental consent MUST be given.

Students may wish to take a photo of themselves engaged in their community through various service projects and organizations.

I have read the Notice and Disclosure Statement.
